MATTE SERIES

Over 100 years ago, Russian and Nordic Region fishermen used to smoke spoons for pike and Tungsten ice jigs for bream and roach to dull the finish. The Fisherman's theory was that a matte lure appears to be of it's original size for fish, when a glitter lure may be interpreted by fish as a larger one.

Introducing the FISKAS Matte Series in 15 fish catching color patterns with a fine finish and details. Available today, give yourself the edge and get some now!

COLD SNAP PANFISH TOOTHPICK

There are many advantages to fishing with tungsten FISKAS Wolfram Jigs. Low cost is not on one of them. Removing a deep hooked jig from a fish with forceps or pliers will often cause the paint to flake off the jig, or breakage of the hook shank. This handy tool will save you time and money on the ice! The Toothpick is also available with a retracting 24" lanyard so that it is always close at hand while fishing. Use summer or winter. Simple, safe and effective on all styles of hooks and jigs.
